

EVALUATION OF CREDIT EARNED OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES

Applicants who have attended colleges or universities outside the United States must provide an evaluation of credentials from an approved credentialing agency. The credential report must have a detailed course-by-course evaluation of college-level credit completed. These “foreign credential reports” must be independent reviews prepared by Georgia Professional Standards Commission recognized agencies, and include English translation of such information as course titles, grade, semester hours earned, U.S. equivalency of degree earned, course-by-course evaluations, etc. In addition, if the equivalent of a U.S. educator preparation program was completed, this must also be documented in the report. These agencies are private enterprises who charge a fee for their services. Any expense incurred for obtaining a credential report from a credentialing agency is the responsibility of the applicant.
